IT'S ELECTRA!

The va-va-voom lobby of downtown's newest and most ballyhooed building, Electra (Its slogan: "Where chic sophistication meets urban luxury"), was the ideal spot for an end-of-summer soirée. Riviera magazine teamed up with Jet Source, Pacific Platinum Properties and Symbolic Motors for an all-out schmooze-fest. It was a night of indulgence thanks to chef Winston, Effen Vodka, Peroni and songstress Sacha Boutros providing the soundtrack. On this night, the atrium lobby was transformed into a gallery with artwork courtesy of Exclusive Collections and onsite paintings by the rather handsome Christopher M. At 43 stories, Electra is S.D.'s tallest residential tower, and its Art Deco and neoclassical architecture is the pinnacle of glamour. Lightning has certainly struck! —JAMES REED
